

Vermont New Hampshire Revival Network is a newly formed organization created to network like-minded revival culture individuals, ministries and churches for the purpose of promoting spiritual revival in the most unchurched region of our nation.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to network Kingdom minded individuals, ministries, and churches in the Vermont/New Hampshire region for mutual support and edification so that revival culture flourishes in this region resulting in a shift in the spiritual atmosphere whereby heaven invades earth and lives are permanently transformed.

OUR VISION

A movement that advances the Kingdom of God through the sharing of resources, the promoting of spiritual gifts, worship, prayer, and teaching opportunities while affirming the ministry calling of like-minded leaders.

Our Board of Directors: Lyle & Carol Willey

Our founding leaders are Pastor Lyle Willey and his wife, Carol. Lyle and Carol have been ministering in the Northern region of Vermont for more than 40 years. Lyle has pastored three churches and is now the pastor of Abundant Life Fellowship of Northern Vermont in Enosburg Falls, VT, a church he and Carol helped plant in 2013. Lyle and Carol have a passion for revival culture and are intent on bringing miracles, signs, and wonders, divine healing, restoration, revelation, transformation deliverance and people coming to Christ throughout Vermont and New Hampshire.

Gary & Gisele Walker

Gary and Gisele Walker have been active in Kingdom ministry for almost 20 years. Born and raised in Vermont, they moved to Redding, CA to attend the Bethel School of Ministry in 2009 and remained there to work on the school staff until 2015. Since returning to Vermont, they have established and run the Revival School of Transformation and trained more than 150 students. They are passionate in seeing lives transformed by the Love, Power & Goodness of God. Gary and Gisele live in Cambridge, Vermont and are members of Abundant Life Fellowship.

Fr. Leo Benjamin, Guest teacher

Pastor Leo Benjamin serves as the pastor at the Church of the Crucified One in Moretown, Vermont, and is the Managing Editor of "My Faith News." Raised in Vermont during the peak of the Charismatic movement in the 1970s & 1980s, he experienced a transformative born-again experience in 1977, setting the course for his life. He began Seminary through the Community of the Crucified One in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1993, was ordained in November 2006, and continued his studies in biblical Hebrew. Leo, has been married to his wife Arlene for 42 years, is blessed with three children and four grandchildren. He has a gift for bringing scripture alive by exploring the original language and context. Well-traveled, he excels in media and digital marketing.
